CHANEL CHRISTOFF DAVIS ATTENDS HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL PROGRAM WITH AN EMPHASIS ON DRIVING GROWTH AND DEVELOPING ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

DALLAS, TEXAS – JULY 31, 2019 – CHANEL CHRISTOFF DAVIS attended the executive leadership management program Leading Professional Services Firms at Harvard Business School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The course provides the frameworks needed to develop and retain talent, deliver outstanding client service, and build a flexible corporate culture that can exploit disruptive innovation and market trends.

“Attending this program came at a pivotal juncture in our firm’s history. I gained knowledge and insights needed to continue driving the growth of my firm and developing leaders internally. In addition, I built relationships with a diverse group of talented leaders from around the world.”

Partial funding for attendance in the management program was the result of Davis Davis & Harmon winning the Dallas/Fort Worth Minority Supplier Development Council's Excellence Awards Supplier of the Year. This honor recognizes those minority-owned companies that have demonstrated excellence in the areas of business growth, operations, innovation and commitment to the community.

Chanel Christoff Davis is a founding partner of Davis Davis & Harmon LLC (DDH) – Sales Tax Experts. As President and CEO, Davis manages client relations and the day-to-day operations of the firm.

In addition to managing DDH, Davis is a highly sought public speaker in various areas of tax, practice leadership, and business strategy, especially since the recent Supreme Court ruling South Dakota v. Wayfair, a case that made remote and online sales taxable throughout the US.
