DHD FILMS NAMED WINNER IN 8 CATEGORIES IN THE 43rd ANNUAL TELLY AWARDS

Dallas, Texas – June 8th, 2022 – The Telly Awards has named DHD Films as a recipient of five Silver and three Bronze Awards in the 43rd annual awards cycle. The Telly Awards honors excellence in video and television across all screens and is judged by leaders from video platforms, television, streaming networks, and production companies including Adobe, Netflix, A&E Networks, and ESPN Films. This year's Telly Awards attracted more than 12,000 entries from all 50 states and five continents with Warner Bros., Sony Music, Microsoft, and DHD Films among 2022 winners.

"Now, more than ever, it is necessary to celebrate video work that reflects the top tier of our industry, such as DHD Films," says Telly Awards Executive Director, Sabrina Dridje. "This year's submissions reflect an industry that has returned to the important work of storytelling with a new perspective that values innovation, agility, equity, and tenacious creativity."

"These eight awards are both a testament to our deep passion for storytelling and re-affirms our commitment to being a world-class production partner for our clients. It's our team members that deliver for our clients day in and day out. To say that I am proud and grateful is an understatement," says Shezad Manjee, Founder and Creative Director at DHD Films.

Today's winners announcement caps a year-long celebration of creators producing work with a new POV and a refreshed creativity, reflecting an ever-changing landscape emerging from the difficulties and opportunities from the last few years.

"Whether it's new ways of remote working, placing purpose at the center of a business' key values or providing Employee Resource Groups for communities to gather and support each internally," says Dridje, "this year's incredible group of winners perfectly exemplifies the many artful and unique ways video is being used to tackle these timely topics. By introducing our new categories, we're continuing to deliver on our mission of constantly evolving with the changing industry and the world."
